

Art Task:

In preparation for starting the A level course, I would like you to keep a visual diary of your summer holidays. If you are able to, please purchase an A5 sketchbook to keep a record of this. I would like you to include 12 drawings (roughly 2 a week) and you could also include other elements including photography, collage & painting. You will be sharing this with the class during the first week of school